

Job Description

Job Title: Quality Control Technician

Summary:

A Quality Control Technician is expected to perform tests and inspections of products at various stages of the production process for compliance with specifications; and to evaluate statistical data in order to determine and maintain the quality and reliability of Epimed products by performing the following duties.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities: (others may be assigned)

- Maintains quality control objectives according to standard operating procedures.
- Performs inspection activities throughout the production cycle.
- Sets up and performs destructive and nondestructive tests on materials, parts, or products to measure performance, life, or material characteristics, and records data.
- Ability to accurately use various measuring tools, micrometer, caliper, etc.
- Interprets specification, drawings, work orders, and standard operating procedures.
- Analyzes and resolves problems.

Qualifications:

To perform this job successfully, an individual must be able to perform each essential duty satisfactorily. The requirements listed below are representative of the knowledge, skill, and/or ability required. Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions.

➤ Education and/or Experience:

High school diploma or graduate equivalency diploma (GED); six months to one year related experience and/or training; or equivalent combination of education and experience.